WHALER'S DIVE LOCKER

Safety tip: In life in general and diving in particular the consequences of an action or lack of it when needed, may determine the future outcome of your diving life. Choose wisely as at any time diving isn't a dress rehearsal.

I will be starting a DM class right after the 1st of the year along with an open water class. I will need Whalers assistance as always in the pool and the ocean. I will advise when the DM class needs volunteers, remember that someone volunteered for you. Looking forward to training and diving in 2019.
